A/ Unless otherwise specified, all amounts presented in this table were reported by the respective States and are believed to be reasonably complete and adequate although it is known that figures for Maryland, Oregon, and Texas include relatively small amounts of obligations incurred for relief in the form of hospitalization or burials.

B/ Negative amounts result from small cancellations or adjustments applicable to data reported for previous periods. States were advised to include these items on current reports rather than to revise previous reports when the individual items were so small that revisions would necessitate an unreasonable amount of clerical work. These negative amounts were not taken into consideration in the computation of percent distribution of sources of funds.

C/ Data are partially estimated.

D/ Less than 0.05 percent.

A/ Amounts include general relief extended to cases, cost of emergency education and transient programs conducted by Emergency Relief Administrations, non-relief wages and materials incident to work relief projects conducted by State and local relief administrations, and cost of administration. Unless otherwise specified, all amounts presented in this table were reported by the respective States and are believed to be reasonably complete and adequate.

B/ Data are partially estimated.

C/ Less than 0.05 percent.

D/ Negative amounts of Federal funds result from small cancellations or adjustments applicable to data reported for previous periods. States were advised to include these items on current reports rather than to revise previous reports when the individual items were so small that revisions would necessitate an unreasonable amount of clerical work. State and local fund percentages were computed on the basis of the total of State and local funds only.

E/ All Continental United States totals are partially estimated. Figures for State and local funds for the period January through July 1936 have been revised to eliminate errors which appeared in Table C of "General Relief Statistics for the fifteen-month period January 1936 through March 1937."
